

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lansons Business College closed its term today.

The militia company paraded last night and the band practiced.

The new ten-stamp battery of the Phoenix mine arrived yesterday.

There will be a public dance at the Railroad Avenue house this evening.

The street cars took out to the Fiesta last evening about the usual crowd. A tub race on the swimming bath was the chief attraction.

C. A. Scott of the Fair has closed up his business and sold out his stock to St. Claire & Pratt, who now have the only news stand in town.

The Maricopa and Phoenix railroad brought in yesterday two cars of lumber for Holmes, Gregory & Lindsay, one car of coal for H. E. Kemp, one car of machinery for the Phoenix mine and two cars of general merchandise.

Two troops of the Second cavalry passed Maricopa yesterday bound to posts in southeastern Arizona. They are changing station from the State of Washington, succeeding the Fourth cavalry in Arizona.

The Board of Equalization of Maricopa county will meet on Tuesday, July 3, and remain in session thereafter until July 20. Sitting as the Board of Supervisors, the regular quarterly bill will be audited July 7.

Chairman Hakes has had the railing at the head of the inside Court House stairs strongly braced with iron. The railing has been weak and insecure, and a serious accident was likely to occur at any time, as it is the favorite roost of litigants and jurors.

A brisk fire was started yesterday evening at the Railroad Avenue House, near the depot by the carelessness of some children with matches. A pile of paper was set on fire and a hole burned in the floor of the second story. Prompt action alone saved the hotel.

PERSONAL.

Rev. G. H. Adams left yesterday for Tucson.

W. C. Nations, the Texas cattleman, is again in the city.

G. B. Wilcox and wife, of New York City, are at the Commercial.

Captain Lee of McDowell registered yesterday at the Mills House.

Governor Wolfley is expected to return from Tucson by today's train.

A. Ridewill went to Tombstone yesterday. He will be gone about ten days.

Florence's new military company will give a ball on the Fourth and a grand time is expected.

Wm. R. Lewis, E. A. Murphy, Joseph Mullen and J. D. Martin were in the capital yesterday from Tempe.

J. S. Hall, Esq., one of the leading attorneys of Florence, is in the city, enroute to Gila Bend. He reports Florence prosperous.

T. N. Marsteller, formerly clerk at Eschman's drug store, went yesterday to Tucson, where he has obtained a situation in Martin's pharmacy.

Colvert Wilson, Assistant United States District Attorney, who has been in Tucson during the past week assisting in the prosecution of twenty-six line-jumping Chinamen, returned to Phoenix yesterday.

Prof. L. W. Baker of Downey, Cal., is in the city, the guest of A. P. Walbridge. The professor, who is an educator of extensive experience, is an applicant for the position of principal of the Territorial Normal school.

POLICE PICKINGS.

The Fiesta does not seem to affect to any great extent the business of the petit courts.

Francisco Salazar was taken in yesterday by the Marshal and awaits trial for being drunk and disorderly.

Lucas Leon was brought before Justice Sherman yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace. He pled guilty and was fined $5.

A regular "tourist" was gathered in the other night for sleeping in the street, but promised to leave town, and was released. He made tracks for Maricopa.
